

Thiago Pari

+1-347-409-0333 | tp2330@nyu.edu | linkedin.com/in/thiago-pari

Education

New York University, College of Arts and Sciences, New York, NY

2022 – 2025

Bachelor of Arts, Economics and Mathematics, Data Science

GPA: 3.6 / 4.0

Relevant Courses: Financial Accounting, Money and Banking, Analytical Statistics

Experience

Central Office Intern at Office of Residential Life and Housing Services

January 2023 – Present

New York

- Completed data entry & documented notable business and transactions in Service Link and StarRez databases.
- Maintained complete confidentiality with student records and intra-staff communication.
- Demonstrated fluency in all administrative and operational procedures of the central office, including applications, assignments, room changes, cancellations, accounts, academic initiatives and residence hall options and policies.
- Replied professionally to all emails sent to housing@nyu.edu
- Kept supervisors informed about all problems and concerns.
- Provided assistance, administered appropriate protocol, and responded as directed during emergencies.

Data Analyst - Agribusiness Industry

Jan 2022 – May 2022

Tacna, Peru

- Gathered and cleaned agricultural data from various sources, ensuring accuracy and consistency.
- Utilized python and R to analyze data, identifying patterns and trends in the agribusiness sector.
- Conducted predictive modeling to forecast crop yields, market demands, and pricing trends.
- Created visualizations, such as graphs and charts, to help communicate findings to superiors.
- Prepared detailed reports and presentations for stakeholders, highlighting key insights and recommendations.
- Collaborated with other departments to ensure data-driven decision-making in marketing, sales, and supply chain management.
- Assisted in the development of data-driven strategies (precision agriculture, weather forecast integration, etc.) to optimize crop production and distribution.

Assistant Manager – Agribusiness Industry

July 2020 – April 2021

Tacna, Peru

- Ensured appropriate conditions for stored olives.
- Conducted regular performance reviews, providing feedback and training as necessary.
- Assisted in the development and implementation of business strategies (diversification, value addition, etc.) to enhance profitability.
- Assisted in budget preparation and financial forecasting for the agribusiness unit.
- Monitored expenses and revenues, ensuring financial targets were met and identifying areas for cost optimization.
- Acted as a liaison between the management and the team, ensuring clear communication of objectives and expectations.
- Identified areas for operational improvement, implementing best practices and innovative solutions to enhance efficiency.

Skills

Computer:

- Proficient in Word, Excel, Power Point, Python & R
- Intermediate Structured Query Language (SQL), Tableau & MATLAB
- Financial modeling and forecasting

Language: Fluent Spanish, Beginner French, Beginner Italian